FAQ:

1. Can I apply for one of your programs and use my own weapons, ammunition, and equipment?

- 1a. Yes, you can use your own weapons, ammunition, and equipment as long as they are legally owned, and you have a valid permit for possessing/carrying weapons, which you must submit when applying for the program. Throughout your participation in our program, you must adhere to the “Law on Weapons and Ammunition of the Republic of Serbia”, which prescribes how to handle weapons and ammunition in the possession of citizens and legal entities.

2. Can I pay for the program in cash?

- 2a. Yes, and you will receive a receipt for the cash payment, as well as an invoice for the program you have applied for..

3. If I decide to withdraw from the program after making a payment, will I receive a refund?

- 3a. By registering and making a payment, you become a potential user of our services. Any withdrawal due to personal reasons does not qualify for a refund. The full amount previously paid remains the property of TTT.

4. If I decide to leave the program for personal reasons after it has started, what is the procedure?

- 4a. Any withdrawal due to personal reasons is a personal matter. TTT retains the entire amount of the paid funds.

5. If, during training, I damage or destroy TTT property due to negligence or failure to follow the instructions and orders of a TTT-authorized officer, what is the procedure?

- 5a. By signing the Tactical Training Team’s internal documents, “Liability Wavier” and “Health and Safety Declaration”, you fully confirm that you understand and accept the obligation to follow the written and verbal instructor/orders of authorized officers of the Tactical Training Team. For any deviation or refusal to comply with the regulations, which results in damage or destruction of property owned by TTT, you are obliged to cover the costs in the amount determined by the Tactical Training Team’s expert commission.
